- 21 The Directors may, at their discretion, refuse to admit any person to membership where they have reasonable grounds to believe that he/she might, if admitted to membership, act in a manner which would damage the reputation of the Company, undermine the efficiency of its operations and/or disrupt the proper conduct of its meetings.
- 22 The Directors shall consider each application for membership at a Directors' meeting held within a reasonable time after receipt of the application, and the Directors shall, within a reasonable time after the meeting, notify the applicant of their decision on the application.

Minimum number of members

23. The minimum number of members is 20; in the event that the number of members falls below 20, the Directors may not conduct any business other than to ensure the admission of sufficient members to achieve the minimum number.
24. A majority of the members of the Company shall at all times be Ordinary Members.

Membership subscription

25. The Ordinary Members may at any or each annual general meeting fix an annual membership subscription (and, if relevant, different rates for different categories of membership).

27. If the annual membership subscription payable by any member remains outstanding more than four weeks after the date on which it fell due (and providing he/she has been given at least one written reminder) the Directors may, by resolution to that effect, expel him/her from membership; for the avoidance of doubt, it will be open to an individual expelled from membership under this article to reapply for membership if he/she so wishes.
28. A person who ceases (for whatever reason) to be a member shall not be entitled to any refund of the membership subscription.

Register of members

- 35 Not more than 15 months shall elapse between one annual general meeting and the next.
- 36 The business of each annual general meeting shall include:
- (a) a report on the activities of the Company
  - (b) receipt of the annual accounts of the Company
  - (c) the election/re-election of Directors, as referred to in articles 65 to 70.

Notice of general meetings

- 39 At least 14 clear days' notice must be given of an annual general meeting or extraordinary general meeting.
- 40 The reference to "clear days" in articles 31 and 39 shall be taken to mean that, in calculating the period of notice, the day after the notice is posted, (or, in the case of a notice sent by electronic means, the day after it was sent) and also the day of the meeting, should be excluded.
- 41 A notice calling a meeting shall specify the time and place of the meeting; It shall (a) indicate the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting and (b) if a special resolution (see article 44) (or a resolution requiring special notice under the Act) is to be proposed, shall also state that fact, giving the exact terms of the resolution.
- 42 A notice convening an annual general meeting shall specify that the meeting is to be an annual general meeting; any other general meeting shall be called an extraordinary general meeting.
- 43 Notice of every general meeting shall be given
- (a) in hard copy form
  - (b) in writing or, (where the individual to whom notice is given has notified the Company of an address to be used for the purpose of electronic communication) in Electronic Form; or
  - (c) (subject to the Company notifying members of the presence of the notice on the website, and complying with the other requirements of section 309 of the Act) by means of a website.

Special resolutions and ordinary resolutions

- 44 For the purposes of these articles, a "special resolution" means a resolution passed by 75% or more of the votes cast on the resolution at an annual general meeting or extraordinary general meeting, providing proper notice of the meeting and of the intention to propose the resolution has been given in accordance with articles 39 to 43; for the avoidance of doubt, the reference to a 75% majority relates only to the number of votes cast in favour of the resolution as compared with the number of votes cast against the resolution, and accordingly no account shall be taken of abstentions or members absent from the meeting.
- 45 In addition to the matters expressly referred to elsewhere in these articles, the provisions of the Act

allow the Company, by special resolution,

- (a) to alter its name
- (b) to alter any provision of these articles or adopt new articles of association.

46 For the purposes of these articles, an “ordinary resolution” means a resolution passed by majority vote (taking account only of those votes cast in favour as compared with those votes against), at an annual general meeting or extraordinary general meeting, providing proper notice of the meeting has been given in accordance with articles 39 to 43.

Procedure at general meetings

47 No business shall be dealt with at any general meeting unless a quorum is present; the quorum for a general meeting shall be the greater of 10 Ordinary Members or 10% of the Ordinary Members present in person or by proxy.

48 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which a general meeting was due to commence - or if, during a meeting, a quorum ceases to be present - the meeting shall stand adjourned to such time and place as may be fixed by the chairperson of the meeting.

49 The chair of the Company shall (if present and willing to act as chairperson) preside as chairperson of each general meeting; if the chair is not present and willing to act as chairperson within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to commence, the Directors present at the meeting shall elect from among themselves the person who will act as chairperson of that meeting.

50 The chairperson of a general meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting to such date, time and place as the chairperson may determine.

51 Every Ordinary Member shall have one vote, which (whether on a show of hands or on a secret ballot) may be given either personally or by proxy.

52 Any Ordinary Member who wishes to appoint a proxy to vote on his/her behalf at any meeting (or adjourned meeting):

- (a) shall lodge with the Company, at the Company's registered office, a written instrument of proxy (in such form as the Directors require), signed by him/her; or
- (b) shall send by electronic means to the Company, at such electronic address as may have been notified to the members by the Company for that purpose, an instrument of proxy (in such form as the Directors require);

providing (in either case), the instrument of proxy is received by the Company at the relevant address not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting (or, as the case may be, adjourned meeting).

53 An instrument of proxy which does not conform with the provisions of article 52, or which is not lodged or sent in accordance with such provisions, shall be invalid.

54 An Ordinary Member shall not be entitled to appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion.

55 A proxy appointed to attend and vote at any meeting instead of an Ordinary Member shall have the same right as the Ordinary Member who appointed him/her to speak at the meeting and need not be a member of the Company.

56 A vote given, or ballot demanded, by proxy shall be valid notwithstanding that the authority of the person voting or demanding a ballot had terminated prior to the giving of such vote or demanding of such ballot, unless notice of such termination was received by the Company at the Company's registered office (or, where sent by electronic means, was received by the Company at the address notified by the Company to the members for the purpose of electronic communications) before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote was given or the ballot demanded.

- 57 If there are an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting shall not be entitled to a casting vote.
- 58 A resolution put to the vote at a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a secret ballot is demanded by the chairperson (or by at least two persons present in person at the meeting and entitled to vote (whether as Ordinary Members or proxies for Ordinary Members)); a secret ballot may be demanded either before the show of hands takes place, or immediately after the result of the show of hands is declared.
- 59 If a secret ballot is demanded, it shall be taken at the meeting and shall be conducted in such a manner as the chairperson may direct; the result of the ballot shall be declared at the meeting at which the ballot was demanded.

64. No person may take office as a Director until they have accepted, signed and completed the Company’s code of conduct for directors (including such declarations and disclosures as are required by the code of conduct) as determined by the Directors from time to time. The code of conduct will require to be signed and completed by Directors after each AGM.

Election, retiral, re-election: Member Directors

- 65 At each annual general meeting, the Ordinary Members may (subject to article 61) elect any Ordinary Member to be an Elected Director (providing he/she is willing to act and seeking election and has given to the Company written confirmation of this not less than seven days before the date of the relevant meeting). If at the annual general meeting the number of Ordinary Members seeking election is less or equal to the number of vacant places for Elected Directors they will be deemed elected without a vote. If there are more Ordinary Members standing for election than there are vacant places then an election by ballot at the annual general meeting shall proceed each Ordinary Member having one vote for each vacant place.

- 70 A Director who retires from office under article 67 or 68 shall be eligible for re-election.

Appointment/re-appointment: Co-opted Directors

- 71 In addition to their powers under article 66, the Directors may (subject to article 61) at any time appoint any person (providing he/she is willing to act) to be a Co-opted Director on the basis that he/she has specialist experience and/or skills which could be of assistance to the Directors.
- 72 At each annual general meeting, all of the Co-opted Directors shall retire from office — but shall then be eligible for re-appointment under article 71.

Termination of office

  - (j) he/she is required to resign from office by written notice signed by two thirds of the remaining Directors (excluding the Director in question).

Register of Directors

- 74 The Directors shall maintain a register of Directors, setting out full details of each Director, including the date on which he/she became a Director, and also specifying the date on which any person ceased to hold office as a Director.

Officebearers

- 75 The Directors shall elect from among themselves a chairperson and such other office bearers (if any) as they consider appropriate.
- 76 All of the office bearers shall cease to hold office at the conclusion of each annual general meeting, but shall then be eligible for re-election subject to the provision that the chairperson may hold such office only for a maximum continuous period of 3 years and must then resign from such office.
- 77 A person elected to any office shall cease to hold that office if he/she ceases to be a Director, or if he/she resigns from that office by written notice to that effect.

Powers of Directors

- 78 Subject to the provisions of the Act and these articles, and subject to any directions given by special resolution, the Company and its assets and undertaking shall be managed by the Directors, who may exercise all the powers of the Company.

- 82 Provided
- (a) he/she has declared his/her interest;
  - (b) he/she has not voted on the question of whether or not the Company should enter into the relevant arrangement; and
  - (c) the requirements of article 84 are complied with,
